SCHOOL OF HEALTH RELATED PROFESSIONS

Department of Psychiatric Rehabilitation and Behavioral Health Care Ph.D. Psychiatric Rehabilitation

ACADEMIC POLICIES

POLICY: Dissertation Course Sequence and Requirements

PURPOSE: This policy prescribes the sequence and requirements of courses necessary to complete the dissertation requirement for the Ph.D. in Psychiatric Rehabilitation

RESPONSIBILITY: Students admitted to the dissertation track of the Ph.D. program

Course Number	Activities/Requirements	Prerequisites
PSRT7001-Seminar I*	Student is oriented to the dissertation
(3 credits)	process and presents a dissertation research plan before a colloquium of faculty and students.
PSRT7002-Advisement*	Continuing registration/advisement.	Incompletes in PSRT
(1 credit)	Students with an incomplete or in-	7001, - 03, -05, or -07 progress grade in any 7000 level course must register for Advisement each semester or re-register for the incomplete course.
PSRT7003-Seminar II*	Proposal (Introduction, Literature Review	PSRT7001
(3 credits)	and Methods Chapters) is written signed/accepted by all members of the dissertation committee after a presentation by the candidate to the entire committee.
PSRT7005 Dissertation Research*	Data collection is begun and completed	PSRT7003
(3 credits)	during this course. Completion requires approval of the Dissertation Committee.
PSRT7007-Dissertation Writing*	Write final version of the dissertation.	PSRT7005
(3 credits)	Passed oral defense and submitted completed/signed dissertation to the committee chair, committee members, Department, school, and Dissertation
	Abstracts International.

^{*} All these courses are Pass or Fail